Dear Roger,

Thank you for your signal agreeing to Sheringham's visit as proposed by my letter to you of 9th August. The details have now been settled, and I attach a note of his flight schedules.

I would be most grateful if your people would be good enough to book accommodation for him at the various stops excluding, of course, Hong Kong, where he is making his own arrangements. May I take it that you will make the necessary arrangements in Washington on his arrival for his entry into Okinawa.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

J. T. Campbell
Head of Monitoring Service
